NEW RADIO STATION
TO OPEN IN TI-HUA

A new radio station in Sinkiang, the Voice of Ti-hua, will begin a daily broadcast from 7 to 10 pm on 15 March. It will operate on a frequency of 6,976 kilocycles and a wave length of 43 kilometers with call letters of XEST. Only five among the station's important personnel are drawing salary. The others hold concurrent positions in the municipal government from which they receive salaries. The station is temporarily located east of the Ti-hua movie house.

Program of the Voice of Ti-hua will include the following categories:

1. Current events
2. Municipal Administration news and proclamations
3. Community education
4. Lectures
5. Special broadcasts (rebroadcasts of Chinese-language programs of an educational nature from domestic and foreign stations--Central Government, International, New Delhi, London, Voice of America, etc.)
6. Social Service
7. Commercial conditions and advertisements
8. Children's programs
9. Recordings--music and radio plays.
